TRACKSIDE AROUND MINNESOTA 1959 – 1976

WITH BILL CORDES

by Aaron Isaacs

The late Bill Cordes was very active in Minnesota railfan circles, helping to organize numerous excursions by the Minnesota Railfans Association. A prolific photographer, he captured every aspect of local railroading. In this title are Bill's best photos from 1959 to 1976, featuring the Twin Cities, Duluth, the Missabe Iron Range, prairie branch lines, and the longest doodlebug excursion ever! Hardcover, Item #1768

MARION: CROSSROADS OF OHIO

by Stephen M. Timko & Robert J. Yanosey

Marion was known as the Crossroads of Ohio Railroading – it was intersected by four railroads: PRR main line to Sandusky (later N&W), C&O (Hocking Valley), NYC (Big Four), and the Erie (later EL) main line between Chicago and Hoboken. Yard moves as well as passenger and freight trains and structures are documented through the lens of many well-known photographers. Coverage reaches back in to PRR days at Marion and progresses through PC, Chessie, CSX, NS, and Conrail! Softcover, Item #829-0

KENTUCKY & TENNESSEE SHORT LINES IN COLOR

by Gary R. Carlson

Documents "traditional" railroads fewer than 100 miles in length serving KY & TN, focusing not only on little-known steam-powered small lines that operated until the 1950s or 1960s, but also other roads surviving into the diesel era. Declining local economies and increased costs led to the 1980s demise of many of these local conventional shortlines. Featuring Artemus-Jellico, Brimstone, Cadiz, Carrollton, Chattanooga Traction, Corinth & Counce, East TN & Western, North Carolina, Emory River, Flemingsburg & Northern, Frankfort & Cincinnati,

Glasgow, KY & IN Terminal, KY & TN, Memphis Union Station, Morehead & North Fork, Oneida & Western, Smoky Mountains, TN, AL & GA, and Tennessee! Hardcover, Item #1773
